Dear Readers

I want to bring to your readers attention something very important.

There is an organisation that is operating right here in Stamford Hill, in a most beautifully discreet manner. You may have heard their name, but you probably do not know that they are helping many, many people and are bringing generations into the world n°2. I would definitely not know if I wouldn't be a user. I used to think A-TIME was a siyum hashas, as they are so respectful of their users and refuse to take advantage of their personal hardship, even if it means making a lot less funds. We appreciate that.

But I just want you to know that there are many many many of us out there who rely on their tremendous work and really appreciate all they do with utmost sensitivity and care, to bring us the joy we are waiting for. At NO charge. So if you are being asked to donate, know that this is a VERY worthy cause who will be using your donation for a most important purpose. Every bit counts.

With all due respect, I hope they will forgive me for publicising this. Your donation will help me and many others

Dear Readers

As the last week of holiday winds to an end, am I the only mother of girls feeling like she has been swept through a tornado!!?

I have no doubt that all School Heads out there have invested much time and effort in reviewing and analysing their School Supply List...

YET! Books and books and more books, big labels and small labels, fancy covering paper and made to measure plastic covers, files, folders, lever arch, display books, soft pronged files, A5 press studs, tuft bags, colour coded gym bags... and I dont think I've even reached half the list!!

In the name of convenience, every single subject requires a minimum of 3 apparatus and even though some equipment gets repeated under different subjects, they dare not be reused because each subject must own its unique set! Hence I am buying 12 black ink pens to accommodate several daughters for several subjects!!

Don't get me wrong I'm all for organisation and practicality but not if the convenience in itself becomes a burden!!

My mind takes me back to my good old school days memories where SIMPLE was the name of the game. We all had our books neatly wrapped in brown paper. Then came the one neat freak in the class who had her books cellophaned for double protection! How perfect, she had a thing with cleanliness so she had it double wrapped - but why impose it on the rest!!? For goodness sake we are talking about school books!!

And then when my (now married) daughters were school girls, the lists became longer but there was always space for individuality and budgeting. A file could be purchased in a 99p store because it didn't need to be a specific brand. An old swim bag could always be used for gym.

Why the strong uniform societal pressure!!? What are we teaching our girls? That if their toy cupboards aren't perfectly split into perfectly aligned labelled containers then they are losers!!? That if one poor kallah doesn't receive The Canon G5 camera (RRP $1000) then she is left feeling short changed!!? How are these expensive detailed school lists helping minimise peer pressure and reducing stress!!?

And does it even begin to make sense that post holiday, pre Yom Tov with basic living expenses sky rocketing, millions of pounds is being spent on school supplies!!? A friend repeated to me her husband's lamentation; 'Ribono shel oilom, when are these girls starting school!!? Every day not back is costing me hundreds of pounds...!!'

So, to all our very dedicated Head Teachers, Heads of curriculum and Teachers. Before you embark on next year's school supply list don't just think of your picture perfect little geography project. Please consider; Thousands of parents who are being forced to struggle in order to make it happen plus our future Yiddishe mammes - with this obsession for perfection what message are we conveying!!!?

T.R.

Dear Readers

Despite someone writing here a few weeks ago about the dangers of laser pointers, they are still being sold in the local toy shops. It isn't a toy, and should NOT be sold to children. I like to know that I can send my child themselves. I'm a mother of kids old enough to go shopping themselves, but yet when I went to a goyishe store they refused to sell me a scissor as I didn't have proof of my age.

How many innocent kids have to lose their eyesight chalila until we receive the message?!

M.M.

L'chaim - in the zechus of the Ribnitzer

No parent should ever have to go through the excruciating pain we experienced, so I hope you can't relate... But my feelings were intense. Very. You see, we were looking into shidduchim for our Shloimy* for close to a decade!

We tried everything. When Shloimy turned 27, we decided to get the zechus of the Ribnitzer Rebbe, zy"a, on our side. So many stories are told of yeshuos during his lifetime and after his passing. Maybe we would be zocheh too?

We signed up to Tehillim Kollel.

For the next 40 days, in the predawn hours every morning, the entire sefer Tehillim was earnestly recited on his behalf. Tehillim Kollel's messengers added a special request that Shloimy merit finding his zivug soon.

On Day 41, I called Tehillim Kollel with the exciting news.

"To tell you the truth," I began, "we did many segulos, and I'm not in Shamayim to say that 'this' did it. But clearly, the zechus of daily Tehillim, the Ribnitzer Rebbe, zy"a, and tzedakah for the special yungerleit in the Tehillim Kollel minyanim, played a serious role in our long-awaited yearly Shlaimy. role in our long-awaited yeshuah. Shloimy did a beautiful shidduch!"

*Name has been changed.

Have the zechus of the heilige Ribnitzer Rebbe, zy"a, during the Yemei Ratzon and yahrtzeit, Isru Chag Sukkos!

Sefer Tehillim in Ribnitz - recited for you daily.
